

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians

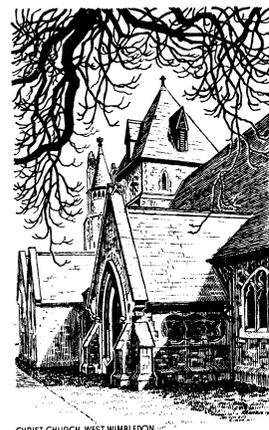

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; his is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1.3-14

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'

Collect

Generous God, you give us gifts
and make them grow:
though our faith is small as mustard
seed, make it grow to your glory
and the flourishing of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Green Prayer

Help us, dear Lord,
so to deal with the things
we possess that they may never possess us.
May we use all that you have given us in your

your Kingdom.
Amen.

MISSION GIVING—TODAY our collections will go to the Nepal Youth Foundation—PLEASE PLACE YOUR ADDITIONAL DONATIONS IN THE BLUE ENVELOPES IF YOU WISH TO CONTRIBUTE. This charity was founded nearly 30 years ago by an amazing woman called Olga Murray, an American lawyer, who at the age of 60 went trekking in Nepal, and discovered how incredibly poorly nourished the children were in the most exotic and beautiful surroundings. Olga, 'retired' and started this charity. She was struck by the optimism and joy of the children that she found in one of the most basic, basic orphanages, and wanted to help. The key ethos was to house, feed and clothe these orphans and most importantly educate them. Over the last 30 years this charity has expanded its transforming the lives of some of the most destitute children on earth. There is great admiration and joy and seeing how these children overcome the dreadful experiences that they have had in their early lives. For more information, look at the board at the back of Church.

NEW VICARAGE—on Friday 20 July and Saturday 21 July, between 11am and 8pm, you will be warmly welcome to come and view the new Vicarage—46 Pepys Road. No need to book—just drop in and have a cup of something to see the new house/garden that the Diocese have purchased for the parish. There are even two parking spaces on the driveway! All welcome—and do bring the children too! If you can't make those dates and would like to come round some other time, let me know and we can easily fix another date.

VISITING HARRY WATSON

Our friend Harry Watson at Carter House Nursing Home in Raynes Park would very much like to see his friends from Christ Church. If anyone is able to pop in to see Harry it would be helpful to put your name against a particular week on the list at the back of church so that he has at least one visitor a week.

CREATIONTIDE 2018—Witnesses of Creation
