Policy for responding to domestic abuse

All forms of domestic abuse are wrong and must stop. We are committed to promoting and supporting environments which:

- ensure that all people feel welcomed, respected and safe from abuse
- protect those vulnerable to domestic abuse from actual or potential harm
- recognise equality amongst people and within relationships
- enable and encourage concerns to be raised and responded to appropriately and consistently.

We recognise that:

- all forms of domestic abuse cause damage to the survivor and express an imbalance of power in the relationship
- all survivors (regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity) have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- domestic abuse can occur in all communities
- domestic abuse may be a single incident but is usually a systematic, repeated pattern which escalates in severity and frequency
- domestic abuse, if witnessed or overheard by a child, is a form of abuse by the perpetrator of the abusive behaviour
- working in partnership with children, adults and other agencies is essential in promoting the welfare of any child or adult suffering abuse.

We will endeavour to respond to domestic abuse by:

- in all our activities –
  - ◇ valuing, listening to and respecting both survivors and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse
- in our publicity –
  - ◇ raising awareness about other agencies, support services, resources and expertise, through providing information in public and women-only areas of relevance to survivors, children and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse
- when concerns are raised –
  - ◇ ensuring that those who have experienced abuse can find safety and informed help
  - ◇ working with the appropriate statutory bodies during an investigation into domestic abuse, including when allegations are made against a member of the church community
- in our care –
  - ◇ ensuring that informed and appropriate pastoral care is offered to any child, young person or adult who has suffered abuse
  - ◇ identifying and outlining the appropriate relationship of those with pastoral care responsibilities with both survivors and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse.

What you should do if you suspect a child or a vulnerable adult is being abused:

1. Record the facts as known to you -

Including when and where conversations took place as well as what was said and being careful to distinguish facts from allegations and opinions.

2. Speak to the Parish Safeguarding Officers and the Vicar. They will then be in direct contact with the Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser.

3. It may be in certain exceptional circumstances that the police need to be contacted immediately.

4. Always consider whether immediate medical attention is required.

N.B. The number children can ring if someone has harmed them or they think someone might be going to harm them is:

Childline on 0800 1111 Family Lives (previously Parentline) 0808 800 2222

...if a child or vulnerable adult tells you something which suggests they have been abused:

1. Listen to them rather than asking direct questions or pressing for details

2. Do not stop them while they are freely recalling significant events

3. Reassure them (who may have been threatened, told to keep what is happening secret, or told that no one will believe them) that they have done the right thing in telling someone, and that they are not to blame.

4. Let them know that there are other people who need to be told so that they can help them

5. Record the facts and tell someone (as listed above in 'if you suspect any abuse')

6. Do not delay or decide to give the benefit of the doubt to parents or others

7. Detailed enquiries must be left to the investigating agencies

If an allegation is made against you:

Inform the Parish Safeguarding Officers and the Vicar immediately. In every case the Diocese Safeguarding Adviser will also then be informed by them as soon as possible.
