

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philipians.

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2.5–11

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, "Why are you untying it?" just say this, "The Lord needs it."' So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, 'Why are you untying the colt?' They said, 'The Lord needs it.' Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, 'Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!' Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, 'Teacher, order your disciples to stop.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.'

SUNDAY 10 APRIL 2022

PALM SUNDAY

Collect

True and humble king,
hailed by the crowd as Messiah:
grant us the faith to know you
and love you,
that we may be found beside you
on the way of the cross,
which is the path of glory. Amen.

Post Communion

Lord Jesus Christ,
you humbled yourself in taking
the form of a servant,
and in obedience died on the cross
for our salvation: give us the mind
to follow you and to proclaim you
as Lord and King,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Green / World Prayer

Lord, you've guided us
through the difficult days of Lent,
encouraging us along the way.

We pray as we move
towards the darkest day,
that you'll not forsake us
but remind us of our Saviour's ultimate gift and promise of new,
abundant, eternal life
for all who believe
and trust in him,
your precious son, Jesus.

Amen.

Palm Sunday

EASTER LILIES If you would like to contribute towards the cost of Easter Lilies in Church, in memory of a loved one, there is a collection box and list on the table at the back of church. TODAY is the final day the list will be available.

REFUGEE PROJECT— thank you to everyone who has so kindly promised to donate items needed to furnish the flat. Could you please bring them to Church NOW and leave them in, or by, the purple tub at the back of the church. If you need any help please let Clare or Lyons know c/o the Parish Office email address.

UKRAINE CRISIS: If you have applied to host a refugee family (or are thinking of doing so) please feel free to let Michael know. It might be good to link you with any others who are planning to do the same. There might also be those who are willing to offer a meal even if they cannot actually host. There is some information from the diocese which Michael could forward to you—though much of the information will be available through the relevant Government website.

UKRAINE—the recent church collection raised £881.25 and the brownies/guides raised £232.65 from their recent cake sale. Thank you for your generous support. Which has been sent to the Disasters Emergency Committee for Ukraine.

BISHOP'S LENT CALL— please have a look at the display on the mobile notice board, outlining the different projects which are being supported. Donations can be placed in the BLUE giving envelopes and marked 'LENT APPEAL' and left in the collection plates. The last day for this collection will be TODAY. Thank you.
