CHURCHES COUNT ON NATURE - 14 June 2026

Thank you to all the children, group leaders and parents who helped with this national survey of species in church gardens and burial grounds. We had fun counting plants, insects and birds and submitted dozens of species to the website. Our records will help the Church of England to care for and increase biodiversity. Our data will be added to the National Biodiversity Network Atlas. Well done everyone!

WESTMINSTER ABBEY PASS

We now have a pass for Westminster Abbey that admits free of charge on one visit 4 adults or children aged 6-16 years and we can use it 6 times during a 12-month period. Please enquire via Tish or Sarah, Churchwardens.

CREATIONTIDE DISPLAYS

Please put your pictures, paintings, photographs and objects for this year's Creationtide Display in the box on the table at the back of church between 12 July and 16 August. If it's difficult for you to print photos, you can email them to Mary Ann Bown via ccwwecochurch@gmail.com or via the parish office by 17 August.

This year, we especially welcome images of waterways and ponds, including from Wimbledon Common (with locations, if possible?), to reflect our themes for Creationtide.

Would you also enjoy decorating one of the church alcoves for Creationtide (1 September to 4 October)?

We've already received one offer, and more are very welcome!

Again, please let us know via Mary Ann (ccwwecochurch@gmail.com) or the parish office.

This week's readings

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 6.12–23

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Jesus said to the twelve: 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple – truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

Matthew 10.40–42

SUNDAY 28 JUNE 2026

FOURTH SUNDAY OF TRINITY

Collect

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

Post Communion

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Green / World Prayer

Lord Jesus,
the earth is yours and you have commanded the winds and the sea;
help us to leave behind our consumer demand for plastics
and move towards behaviours that are environmentally healthy;
help us to follow your lead in caring for the world you love.

Amen
